Rotarians Marshall Hart and Ken Scaplehorn collected donations for the Savlation Army from Hanover High School students. The Hanover Rotary Club has been ringing the bell for the Salvation Army for more than 25 years. Monies raised are for people in need in the greater Richmond area, including Hanover County. The monies collected are used for the Christmas season, feeding of the homeless, the emergency center and utility assistance. The money collected was $1,245.51. HHS students were on a Christmas mission, purchasing Christmas items for families in need in Hanover County when they stopped to generously give to the Salvation Army Red Kettle program.

Ringling bell for Salvation Army

Good job!

Congratulations! I thought you might like an extra copy of the article.
